NOTE: John & Ruth's family went on to produce 35 grandchildren. (From Eric O'Neil and Andrew Toop)

† NOTE: There is still a little doubt here. William and Sarah Mole were married in Leigh July 1770. However, John's baptism record (1772) has William and Ann Jesty as parents. But Leigh only had 2-3 baptisms a year; the father is right; the place is right; and the date is right.

* NOTE: Charles (1817) married Ellen Ridge (from Ireland) in Liverpool in 1841. Charles died in Liverpool in 1865, age 49. John (1842) emigrated to New York, apparently after sisters Mary, Ann & Sarah, with his wife and his mother Ellen/Helen and the remaining children. James's birth is recorded in Salford in early 1869, but in the 1870 & 1880 US censuses a child Helen in the same household is listed born New York ca. 1868. 1869-70 would fit better...
