Robert of Winterhays → William of Yetminster (1734) (Sheet B)

NOTE: William Jesty, according to census records born Yetminster 1814-15, married Mary Cook in Yeovil in 1838. Their children included Emma, Louisa, William Cook, Henry James, etc, as shown. But I cannot confirm William's birth or baptism around Yetminster. Robert & Jane are likely his parents, but unproven.

* NOTE: A James & Grace Jesty in St Helier, Jersey claimed to have been married there (on their children's birth certificates), but there's no record of the marriage and the claimed church was not built. That James (Yeovil, 1820) and James (St Helier) are the same is speculative, but likely. Tracing Grace Johns is also hard: she may have used other names.
